SHANGHAI, Nov. 30.—The Northern. rebels are steadily pursuing their march in a southerly direction, and the Chinese troops appear unwilling or unable to stop their career. The rebels have captured the important walled city of Leso-Yang in Manchuris, and compalled the inhabitants to furnish them with abundant supplies.

It is not reported that any serious outrages were committed at Leao-Yang, and this goes to confirm the prevalent impression that the Mongolian insurgents are not merely a predatory band, but have a definite design in their undertaking. The possession of Leso-Yang gives the rebels the control of an exensive trade both inland and with the Gulf of Leao-Tong. Troops are being hurried from Pekin to oppose the rebel Horrida details have been received of the massice of Belgian missionaries and native Christians at Tayon and Sanchi by the Christians. The Christians were attacked without warning, and had no cintues to escape. The rioters first seized the name, all of whom were subjected to indignities and outrage be-fore being relieved by death. A Heighton priest was branch at a blow. The fiends then seized his body, and tore out the tongue and heart and burned them. The native Caristians were treated even more herribly. They were not permitted to die a swift death. The inferreacts seized the wretched converts, who had fled in vain to the mission, and subjected them to fearful

Their children were selzed, and some hacked to pieces, and others rossted alive before the agonized parents. Then the parents were taken and treated with a refinment of cruelty that only Chinese understand. After suffering various tortures, such as still lived were slaugh-

It would be hard to depict the feelings of Europeans in Shanghai and other places at the relation of these horrors. They are not angry simply; they are furious, and there is a loud and universal demand from all foreigners for a punishment that will bring the Chinese to their source and impress a never-to-be-forgotten lesson.

Can They be Extradited?

Offawa, Nov. 30.—The impression prevails among the officers of the De-partment of Justice that R. H. Mo-Greevy and O. E. Murphy can be ex-tradited for the offenses with which tradited for the offenses with white they are charged, viz., conspiracy and false pretences. In the extradition treaty between Great Britain and the United States, passed July 12, 1889, and proclaimed on March 25, 1890, there is one paragraph which is thought to be applies ble to the case of either of the results by it is considered in the accused, but it is considered un-likely that the United States would grant the extradition, as the plea would be set up that the parties were wanted for political offenses.

A New Witness in Mr. Graves' Case,

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 .- The opinion of the Chreado, Nov. 39.—The opinion of the Donver public was about evenly divided a week ago as regards the guilt or innocence of Dr. Graves, but the belief in his guilt is growing. John H. Conradiant night remarked that much of the important evidences in the case is yet unknown to the public, and that it will cause a great sensation when published. From the tenor of his remarks it is believed that the Pinkertons have secured Hoved that the Pinkertons have secured a new witness, who will teatify of to having prepared the tatal dose.

Senator Chamilton', Letter Causing Con-Cosmonia, N. H., Nov. 30 - There be not a little excitement here over Sena tor Campdler's letter from Washington, n the cowe of Murderer Almy, now a waiting the death penalty here. Squavor's opinion that Almy has a fairly good chance to cheat the gallows is causing much discussion. In his letter he anys: "Cur State has had two memorable murder trials, those of Sawtell and Al my, which have attracted attention throughout the world. On the first, the doors and windows were set wide open and the lives of all the persons in at tendance were endangered as much as was Sawtell's. The two judges took severe colds and narr owly escaped pneumonia, although they bought horse blankets for themselves and the jury.

blankets for themselves and the Jury.

"The exposure to universal sickness ordered by the Court was cruel and disgraceful. In the Almy trial the same was repeated. Everybody's life was periled by opening the doors and windows. I am informed that the windows were entirely removed. To cap the climax of absurdicy, the prisoner was removed to the State prison without the removed to the State prison without the sentence of death being accounted to him, and waited in prison a week before he knew it.

"Consider, O ye jurists, the spectacle presented by New Hampshire. A criminal under sentence of death for murder, yet ignorant of the fact. The lawyers of the nation have looked on with yers of the nation have looked on with amazement, and nothing but the execra-tion in which Almy is universally held prevents an outery of the same from any part of the Union. New Hamp-sbire, by statute, or the arbitrary flat of henorable judges, may have altered a fundamental principal of criminal law. I have not examined the books. But unless Alicy's sentence is publicly an-nounced to him I do not see how, lawfully, he can be banged, or even much fully, he can be bunged, or even much longer imprisoned. The warden cannot hold him for trial, because he has aiready been tried. He cannot hold him to hang him, because he has not been sentenced. After awhile he will be entitled to release on habeas corpus and can go free. "To prevent all questions he should be taken back into the court-room, the deers should be closed against the winds and frost and snow of winter, and he should be sentenced to death as the finding of the judges and law and decency requires, and the people of New Hamp-shire should consider how to prevent such judicial anomalies hereafter as the State has exhibited twice in her recent

ALL LOST AT SEA.

The Brig Tabiti With 300 Gilbert Islanders Believed to Have Foundered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 80 .- A private dispatch received from Manzauillo, Mexico, gives pretty good proof that the brig Tahiti and the 270 Gilbert Islanders on board, who were under contract for the coffee plantations of San Benito, for the coffee prantations of San Bento, Mexico, have been jost at sea. The brig touched at Drake's Bay, near San Francisco, in September last, and though the islanders were seen to be virtually slaves, no action was taken to stop the traffic. The American steamer Reseville arrived at Man-zanillo on Friday from Islapa, and her captain reported that the Reseville passed the wreck of the Tahiti eleven miles southwest of Idzard Point.

She was floating bottom up, with rud-der gone and ballast badly shifted. It was evident that the brig had capsized white on the starboard tack, as all the port rigging had been cut away in an attempt to prevent her going over.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—To consult his medical advisor, Dr. Madison Taylor, was the prime reason for Mr. Blaine's trip to Philadelphia. Mrs Blaine learned that he was in better brains learned that he was in better health and strength new than he was four years ago, and that six months and a year hence he would be stronger than he is now. Ho learned further that he is as good a man physically at 61, Mr. Blaine's age, as anybody sise of like age.

sin Inquire Into Biggins' Death.

VALPARAISC, Nov. 30. - The Judge of Crimes has appointed a commission to inquire into the cause of Riggins' death. The commission will also undertake to secertain whether the bullet-hole in Johnson's neckerchief was caused by a rifle bail or a bullet from a revolver. If it was made by a rifle ball, then Biggins was killed by the police; otherwise by a member of the mob.
